QUESTIONS ??????????

What can the Work in Progress Program do for me?

The Work in Progress, Supported Employment Program can help you to find and keep meaningful employment that interests you. This employment could be full-time, part-time or casual.

What kind of services can I expect from this program?

This program will offer you assistance with examining and reaching your employment goals. We will do this by helping you to discover your interests and talents and apply them to the workplace.

SPECIFIC SERVICES WE CAN OFFER YOU:

1. Employment Appraisal, Assessment and Evaluation
2. Training which will include resume writing, interview skills, workplace culture training, and training specific to your needs.
3. Employment Search — You will receive one on one assistance in searching and developing the employment that fits your individual career plan.
4. Employment Training – Once you have found employment, on the job coaching and task analysis will be available from the employment counselor. Also we can assist with supplying off-site training courses which are required for your new position. This includes courses such as First Aid and WHIMIS.
5. Employment Maintenance — You can expect on-going support and encouragement from your Employment Counselor even after you have found employment. This regular support will assist you and your employer in any areas of concern and to provide you with continued support as you reach your employment goals.
